New Offerings

New Upcountry Adventures at Four Seasons Resorts Lanai

Horseback riders can canter, lope, walk or trot on Four Seasons Resorts Lanai's new Ranch Custom Equine Experience, a two-hour private ride designed for any experience level. The ride begins at Lanai Ranch at Koele and climbs to more than 2,000 feet above sea level to enjoy stunning views. Another new resort activity is an hourlong Rifle Experience plinking steel flip targets at Lanai Archery and Shooting Range. Like a midway arcade or Old West-style shooting gallery, the 22 semi-automatic rifle range offers close-range excitement for both advanced and first-time shooters. For more information, visit www.fourseasons.com/lanai/services-and-amenities/adventure-center/.

Ho'omaka Hou at Fairmont Kea Lani

Fairmont Kea Lani is readying to unveil its Ho'omaka Hou (A New Beginning) Transformation Project, a reimagining of all of the resort's suites and villas designed to evoke stories of Maui's rich cultural heritage utilizing elements encapsulating the resort's storied location. Designed to "blend ancient Hawaiian tradition with modern elegance," the newly enhanced, expansive layouts of the resort's suites and villas create gathering spaces offering a functional home-like space. All available suites and villas will be finished and awaiting guest arrival beginning January 6. For more information, visit www.fairmont-kea-lani.com.

New Wellness Activities at Andaz Maui

Andaz Maui at Wailea Resort recently unveiled new wellness activities including Mix It Up, a class where guests shake and stir cocktails guided by expert mixologists, and Blend and Balance, which encourages guests to discover the nutritional power of staple foods of the Hawaiian diet — such as bananas, coconut and taro — in blended smoothies. Other new resort programs include the Outrigger Canoe Experience, offering guests an opportunity to explore Mōkapu Beach via outrigger canoe, and Walk Story, a walking tour led by a cultural expert sharing the property's connection to Hawaiian culture. For more information, visit www.hyatt.com/en-US/hotel/hawaii/andaz-Maui-at-Wailea-resort/oggaw.

Hotel Wailea Debuts Poolside Caviar Service for the Holidays

Maui adults-only resort Hotel Wailea, comprising 72 suites spread across 15 tropical acres, is inviting its guests to celebrate the holidays with a playful new culinary offering served poolside. Caviar “bumps” — a dollop of fish roe meant to be eaten off the back of one's hand — will be offered to guests alongside sparkling flutes of Laurent-Perrier champagne throughout the festive season. The new experience is designed to pair well with time spent at the resort's adults-only pool, where guests can lounge in large, living-room-style cabanas or oversized pool floats. For more information, visit www.hotelwailea.com.

Whalers Village Welcomes New Holiday Season Tenant: It'Sugar

Opening at Whalers Village this winter, It'Sugar is a candy emporium founded in 2006 by candy veteran Jeff Rubin and is one of the largest specialty candy retailers in the world. Known for its “wild and unique sugar innovations that celebrate lighthearted rebellion” at more than 100 locations in the U.S., It'Sugar “aspires to a future where everyone has access to the pure joy that comes from indulging in a world with fewer rules and more sugar.” For more information, visit www.whalersvillage.com and www.itsugar.com.

Lumeria Maui's The Wooden Crate Welcomes New Farm-to-Table-Focused Chef

A longtime chef advocate of farm-to-table cuisines, Preston Hope is now leading the kitchen team of The Wooden Crate at Lumeria Maui. While still creating new recipes and refining the restaurant's produce garden, Chef Preston is also excited to nourish the Maui community via his new dinner menu. The Wooden Crate is open Tuesdays through Saturdays, with seatings at 6:30 and 7 p.m. Reservations are highly recommended. A three-course prix-fixe menu is offered at $65 per diner. To book a reservation, search for The Wooden Crate on OpenTable.

Events or Activities

Educational Experiences Offered at Lumeria

Lumeria Maui aims to guide guests toward living their best lives with its world-class yoga facility, healing spa, and weekly wellness and cultural classes. The educational retreat offers complimentary classes to all its guests, including Hawai'i locals with special resident rates starting at $15 per class. To view weekly class schedules and reservations, visit www.lumeriamauai.com.

Ritz-Carlton Kapalua Shares Stories of Polynesian Wayfinding

Guests at The Ritz-Carlton Maui, Kapalua can now take in knowledge about traditional Polynesian wayfinding and celestial navigation through the personal stories of Maleko Lorenzo, a real-life crew member of the renowned Hawai'i voyaging canoe, Hōkūle'a. Stories of Polynesian wayfinding is the resort's newest Hawaiian cultural offering, joining other educational sessions like hula lessons, lei po'o (Hawaiian flower crown) making, lei ki kūpe'e (flower wristlet) making, 'ukulele lessons, Hawaiian cordage crafting, a garden tour, and screenings of the Hawai'i-made short film "Sense of Place" that include a talk story session. For more information, visit www.ritzcarlton.com/maui.

Ali'i Nui Maui Sets Sail with Holiday Season Experiences

All are invited to take the Ali'i Nui Santa Sail charter this holiday season. Kids and adults are welcome on board to spend an afternoon sailing with Santa and enjoy hot cocoa and tasty treats. Santa will read a holiday story for all on board and take photos, assisted by a festive crew of helpers. Digital photos and a special gift for keiki (children) are included. The Ali'i Nui Santa Sail charter will be offered from December 18 through 21. Reservations are also open now to celebrate the final night of 2022 on the Ali'i Nui New Year's Eve Royal Sunset Sail, set for December 31, or spend a romantic evening aboard the Ali'i Nui Valentine's Day Royal Dinner Sail, happening on February 14. For more information or to book a reservation, visit www.aliinuimaui.com or call (808) 875-0333.

Halona Kai Holiday Village to Open at Hyatt Maui

Guests and the public are welcome to visit the Halona Kai Holiday Village at Hyatt Regency Maui Resort and Spa, open December 23-25, from 5 to 8 p.m., for holiday music, a delicious buffet, Christmas-themed activities for the family, and a visit by Santa Claus that includes a family photo. The village's nightly tree-lighting ceremony and the arrival of Santa will be followed by a holiday movie and popcorn at its Snowflake Cinema. Sweet treats will be offered at Mrs. Claus' Bakeshop and Candy Cane Lane.

The cost to experience Halona Kai Holiday Village is $120 per adult and $60 per child (ages 3-12). Adult beverages for patrons ages 21 and over will be available for purchase. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit www.hyattregencymaui.com.

Cacao & Sound Ceremony Set for Spa Montage Kapalua Bay

Spa Montage Kapalua Bay will be offering a deep meditation journey with instructors Christina Felty and Paul Balmer of Shanti Sound Healing on December 29. The experience begins with a light ceremonial cacao drink meant to offer participants a soothing transition during a guided chakra meditation, with the sounds of a water gong, Tibetan singing bowls, drums, rattles and chimes. Tickets for the experience are $77 per person, and participants must be age 16 years and older. Doors open at 4:45 pm. Reservations are required via Eventbrite or by calling (808) 662-6627. For more information, visit www.montagehotels.com/kapaluabay/spa/offers/.

Evening Holiday Season Yoga Classes Hosted at Maui Ocean Center

Maui Ocean Center is hosting twice-weekly Aquari-Om yoga classes, with a portion of ticket sales supporting the center's Maui sea turtle rescue and coral restoration efforts. Classes happen Tuesdays and Thursdays, now through January 5, with sessions held facing the aquarium's 750,000-gallon Open Ocean exhibit, home to sharks, rays and other marine life. The hourlong classes begin at 5 p.m., after the center closes to the public, allowing participants to experience the exhibit in a tranquil setting. Aquari-Om classes are $30 per person for visitors, and $25 for kama'āina (Hawai'i residents) and Nā Hoa Kai members. A $5 donation from the sale of each ticket is being donated to the rescue and restoration work of the Marine Institute at Maui Ocean Center. To view the schedule or reserve a class, visit www.mauioceancenter.com/aquari-om.

Pacific Whale Foundation Festival to Celebrate Annual Return of Humpback Whales

Pacific Whale Foundation (PWF) is celebrating winter whale season in Hawai'i with events for keiki (kids) and adults. Its 2023 Maui Whale Festival's Race for Whales is set for February 1-28, encouraging any sustained movement trackable in miles — running, walking, biking, etc. — between these dates, in support of the nonprofit's ocean conservation efforts. To earn a medal, the public is invited to purchase T-shirts or complete 43 miles in recognition of PWF's 43 years of ocean protection work. Additional PWF offerings for whale season include free weekly virtual whale watches open to all (donations are suggested), a virtual keiki whale watch tailored to school groups, and a community beach cleanup. For more information, visit www.pacificwhale.org/mauiwhalefestival.

Annual Whale Tales Event Set to Return In-Person in February

The public is invited to join leading scientists, photographers, conservationists and storytellers at the 17th annual Whale Tales, returning this year to an in-person format, February 17-20, at The Ritz-Carlton Maui, Kapalua. The event will welcome marine scientists from Central America, Mexico, the Philippines, Japan and Hawai'i for a comprehensive update on humpback whales of the North Pacific. For more information, visit www.whaletales.org.

Awards & Accolades

Sensei Lana'i, A Four Seasons Resort Honored as No. 1 Resort in Hawai'i by Condé Nast Traveler

Sensei Lanai, A Four Seasons Resort was recently named No. 1 Resort in Hawai'i in Condé Nast Traveler's 2022 Readers' Choice Awards. The adults-only retreat aims to offer an ideal setting for guests to commit to personal wellness and learn daily practices allowing them to live longer, healthier lives. Guests dine at Sensei by Nobu, enjoy complimentary fitness and wellness classes, relax in a 1,000-square-foot private spa hale (house) with therapeutic treatments, and delve deeper in one-on-one sessions with Sensei Guides and practitioners with degrees in exercise science, nutrition, yoga and mindfulness. To learn more, visit www.fourseasons.com/sensei.

Sentry Tournament of Champions Arrives January 4-8, 2023

PacWhale Eco-Adventures Finders Free Program Seeking Community Scientists

From now through April 21, PacWhale Eco-Adventures is inviting community scientists to submit high-resolution whale fluke photos taken onboard a PacWhale Whale watch ecotour for a chance to receive a complimentary future excursion. The tour company's Finders Free program, offered in partnership with ocean conservation organization Pacific Whale Foundation, supports the nonprofit's research programs by collecting images of humpback whale flukes — the underside of a whale's tail — and utilizing the photos to document re-sightings of previously identified and cataloged whales. For more information, visit www.pacificwhale.org/cruises/maui-whalewatch.

Kōkua Sun Care Offers Maui-Compliant Line of Reef Safe Sunscreens

Kōkua Sun Care is a Hawai'i-based reef-safe sun care company offering non-nano, zinc-based sunscreens fortified with extra antioxidant-rich Hawai'i-grown botanicals fully compliant with Maui's mineral sunscreen law. The company's SPF 50 contains 25% non-nano zinc oxide, which it says is best for the beach, sports and for kids. Kōkua Sun Care's SPF 30 tinted daily moisturizing sunscreen contains 18% non-nano zinc oxide and is formulated for everyday use and an active outdoor lifestyle. The company says both products apply like a smooth lotion, remain on skin, do not sting the eyes, and provide 80 minutes of water resistance. Bulk orders and gift packs are available. For more information or to purchase sunscreen, visit www.kokuasuncare.com.
