FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
5 October 2026

FALL WHAT'S NEW IN THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

HAWAIʻI — Immerse yourself in the spirit of the Hawaiian Islands this fall by exploring its breathtaking natural landscapes, vibrant communities, inspiring mix of cultures and unique-to-Hawaiʻi activities and events. Whether making your first, second or third visit, every day exploring Hawaiʻi offers opportunities to learn about, experience and engage with the wonder of our inspiring island home.

For additional updates about each island, reference the media sites of our Island Visitor Bureaus: the Kauaʻi Visitors Bureau, Oʻahu Visitors Bureau, Maui Visitors and Convention Bureau, and Island of Hawaiʻi Visitors Bureau.

KAUAʻI | HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT

Kauaʻi is welcoming visitors, with most accommodations, restaurants, shops, tours, and activities operating as usual following Hurricane Lowell. Travelers can enjoy the island's natural beauty and distinctive experiences while supporting local restaurants, shops, and activity providers. Visitors are encouraged to travel with patience and aloha, as some businesses may still have limited staffing or services. Visit openkauai.org for a directory of businesses and experiences welcoming visitors.

NEW HOTEL DEVELOPMENTS

ʻAlohilani Resort Waikiki Beach (Oʻahu) will welcome the fall season with a mix of culinary and cultural events. For Honolulu Pride weekend, October 18 and 19, the Lei Pool Party will return to the resort's Swell Restaurant and Pool Bar with themed cocktails and poolside celebrations ahead of the annual Honolulu Pride Parade. The property will also offer a "Pride Amplified" stay package. In November, ʻAlohilani Resort will debut Osteria Mamma, a Waikīkī outlet of the Los Angeles-based Northern Italian Cuisine restaurant. And as an official hotel parter of the annual Hawaiʻi Food and Wine Festival, the ʻAlohilani will host 24K Magic, a rooftop cocktail and tasting event, on November 6. AlohilaniResort.com

1 Hotel Hanalei Bay (Kauaʻi) began welcoming guests to its "Nature's Wellness Sanctuary" guest program in spring of this year, with multiday wellness retreats focused on four pillars: performance and strength, recovery and restoration, science-based wellness and nature. The sanctuary program's elements also extend to the resort's culinary offerings, with a food-as-medicine approach centered on seasonal, nutrient-dense ingredients and mindful eating to support overall health and wellbeing. 1Hotels.com/Hanalei-bay

Hale Hokuala Kauai, Curio Collection by Hilton (Kauaʻi) recently announced the start of its pre-sell phase within the Hōkūala resort community in Līhuʻe. The 210-room resort, which will be Curio's first Hawaiʻi hotel property, is set on a bluff overlooking the Pacific, with views of Hāʻupu mountain, property lagoons and the Ocean Course at Hōkūala. Designed with private lānai (balconies) and an emphasis on open-air living, Hale Hokuala is positioning itself as a central home base for exploring the island. CurioCollection.com/HaleHokualaKauai

Hilton Club Ka Haku Honolulu (Oʻahu), is readying to open this fall in Waikīkī, adding a new 213-suite timeshare property to Hilton Grand Vacations' Hawaiʻi portfolio of properties. The resort will be the company's 14th in the Islands and its first in Hawaiʻi under the Hilton Club luxury brand. Accommodations will range from studios to one-, two- and three-bedroom suites, with amenities including a private arrival and departure lounge, fitness center, pool and bar, Japanese-style bathhouse and ground-floor retail spaces. As part of the project, Hilton Grand Vacations contributed $1 million to the Waikīkī Business Improvement District's efforts supporting revitalization efforts at Kūhiō Beach Park. Hilton.com

Moana Surfrider, A Westin Resort and Spa, Waikiki Beach (Oʻahu), will introduce a new series of small-group wellness classes this fall focused on rejuvenating mind, body and spirit. Held at the resort's Banyan Wing sixth-floor Roof Garden Lanai, the sessions aim to offer a quiet setting for encouraging wellbeing. Capped at 10 participants per class, the weekly lineup includes mat Pilates for building core strength and alignment, a midweek sound bath meditation using immersive sound waves to calm the nervous system, and a breathwork workshop centered on conscious breathing techniques. Mats and all necessary class materials are provided. Online reservations are available up to two weeks in advance. Marriott.com

The Laylow Waikiki, Autograph Collection (Oʻahu) has partnered with design-forward pet brand MODERNBEAST to introduce new pet-centric experiences. Cementing its reputation as a top gathering place for the island's dog community, the collaboration features custom-designed essentials and new bookable packages. "The Pawty Starter" offers a reserved space at Hideout for dog celebrations, complete with a barkcuterie board and custom signage, while "The Paw-Fect Stay" includes pet-friendly accommodations, a custom monstera-print dog bed and welcome amenities. The hotel also continues its quarterly Yappy Hour at Hideout, featuring a special menu of pup cups and doggy bowls. LaylowWaikiki.com

The Ritz-Carlton Residences Waikiki Beach (Oʻahu) is marking its 10th anniversary this year with a new partnership welcoming the first Hawaiʻi location of French patisserie Laudrée. In addition, through the end of 2026 guests staying in the property's three top-floor signature suites can reserve an in-residence Suite Collection Tea Experience featuring curated teas, Laudrée macarons and Eugénies. The celebration will continue through December when a seasonal Laudrée pop-up opens December 4 on the property's outdoor terrace, serving macarons, Eugénies., finger pastries and teas beneath café umbrellas in a Parisian terrasse-style setting. Ritz-Carlton.com

Sheraton Kauai Coconut Beach Resort (Kauaʻi) recently introduced its new Deluxe Oceanfront Suites Collection, featuring 13 suites available for stays beginning this fall. Set along the island's Royal Coconut Coast in Kapaʻa, the design of each 672-square-foot suite was inspired by the Hawaiian directionals of ma uka (toward the mountain) and ma kai (toward the sea), utilizing organic textures and materials to reflect the land's journey from its peaks to ocean. Each suite includes a king bed, spacious living area, private oceanfront lānai (balcony) and floor-to-ceiling windows looking out over Kauaʻi's eastern shoreline and sunrise views. Marriott.com

-pau-

About HTUSA

Hawaiʻi Tourism United States (HTUSA), managed by the Hawaiʻi Visitors and Convention Bureau, is contracted by the Hawaiʻi Tourism Authority (HTA) for marketing management services in the continental U.S. The HTA, the state of Hawaiʻi's tourism agency, was established in 1998 to ensure a successful visitor industry well into the future. Its mission is to strategically manage Hawaiʻi tourism in a sustainable manner consistent with the state of Hawaiʻi's economic goals, cultural values, preservation of natural resources, community desires and visitor industry needs. For more information about the Hawaiian Islands, visit gohawaii.com.

Special note to media: HTUSA recognizes the use of the ʻokina [ʻ] or glottal stop, one of the eight consonants of the (modern) Hawaiian language; and the kahakō [ā] or macron (e.g., in place names of Hawaiʻi such as Lānaʻi). However, HTUSA respects the individual use of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

Media Contacts:

Lei-Ann Field
Senior Director, PR/Communications
Hawaiʻi Tourism United States
lfield@hvcb.org
(808) 924-0208

Kayla Holley
Account Executive
Anthology FINN Partners
kayla.holley@finnpartners.com
(585) 857-6462